

I would like to urge the members of the FCC to vote no on loosening the rules governing media cross-ownership